XVIII. Rules for race:

A. Race distance is 300 meters, with snatching the flag.

B. Water channel is decided by lot drawing, the least time will be the winner. The final game should play at two rounds with two channels respectively and the least time for both races will be the champion.

C. Channel decision of the final game:
   a. First round: Based upon the prior games, the sequence of final teams for channel deciding is first-place team of superiority section, second-place team of superiority section, first-place team of inferiority section, and second-place team of inferiority section.
   b. Second round: In case of four final teams, first-place team changes the channel with second-place team, and third-place team changes the channel with fourth-place team. In case of three final teams, first-place team changes the channel with second-place team, and third-place team changes the channel with the vacant channel being prepared for fourth-place team.

D. 30 minutes before the race, each team should take paddling chart and player’s name card to Registration, and players go to Registration to show their appearance. Those players who go to Registration later than 10 minutes, will be defined as fail and cannot attend any race afterwards.

E. Racing teams should be in position according to paddling chart.

F. Those who jump the gun are subjected for the warning for the first time. The second time will be judged as being failed.

G. Before the judge’s gun firing, paddlers should not let paddles in the water.

H. For flag snatching, the snatcher’s body has to stay within the boat. Other paddlers are entitled to snatch the flag in case the snatcher failed. Drummer and helmsman are not supposed for that action.

I. Those who are rowing off the water channel are judged as being failed.

J. Any player falling off the water should be rescued by the team instantly and is subject to cancellation, judged as being failed.

K. Helmsmans are not supposed to assist with the paddling, nor with the flag snatching. Such action is subject to cancelation, judged as being failed. Paddlers’ gender is not regulated.
L. Whistles or other sounding materials are not allowed, those who offended the rule will be subject to cancelation and judged as being failed.

M. All the necessary stuff such as drum sets, life coats, paddles, helmsmen are provided by the committee without any personal bringing. Any violation is subject to failure after authentication.

N. Race cycle, under the same wins and losses.
   a. If the accumulated number of wins is the same for both teams, the winning team will be judged as the winner.
   b. If the accumulated number of wins is the same for three teams or above, the winner will be decided by the accumulated time period of all games. The least time period will be judged as the winner.

O. Late registration for race is subject to cancellation of its qualification. The registered team will be directly the winner over the other team without registering.

P. Racing teams are suggested to provide helmsmen by themselves. The committee will help provide helmsmen. However, the committee is not responsible for any mistake by the helmsman, nor with any disagreement with the result of the race.

Q. In case written rules are not provided, disagreement is subject to judges.

R. Disagreement should be presented within 30 minutes after announcement of the result. A 6,000 NTS is required for the proposal. The fund will be returned to the winning team, otherwise it stays with the committee.
